Team,

I thought I'd provide electronic versions of the draft RFS2 preamble sections so people could access and comment electronically if they prefer. Of course you can also print and opt for the more traditional manual fireside review.

This email contains Section III thru VI. I'll be forwarding other sections later this afternoon. Plans are to complete the review by Monday and be prepared to run thru comments with Margo on Tuesday.

Margo, we'll also be sending (via delivery) hard copies of the sections being completed later today, however I thought I'd send along the electronic versions to you just in case.

Happy Thanksgiving
